Dear Partners and Friends,

We are thrilled to bring to your attention some amazing news, Bertinga has been awarded amongst the TOP 100 ICONIC WINERIES OF ITALY by the Italian edition of Forbes Magazine.

Forbes has picked the top 100 wineries which stood out for the quality of their wines, the overall sustainability and the brand reputation.

The award ceremony took place yesterday in the iconic Principe di Savoia Hotel in Milan alongside the award ceremony of the best 30 Restaurant Managers / Head Sommeliers of Italy; in other words: the best of the wine and hospitality industry in one room!

We are proud to be in that list amongst the most renowned wine brands of Italy, we are proud to keep sharing amazing accolades and achievements with you and we thank you for your significant contribution to the story of success we are writing.
